NON-VOCATIONAL CHURCH ENGAGEMENT

2024 – Present

RenewingRenewal.com

I began a blog in January 2024, Renewing Renewal, which is focused on leveraging my academic study for the benefit of the Church, especially the charismatic/Pentecostal stream of the Church. The blog has two specific goals related to the charismatic/Pentecostal stream of the Church: 1. Helping us overcome our tendencies toward anti-intellectualism (a distrust of higher learning in general and academic theology in particular), and 2. Helping us overcome our tendencies toward anti-traditionalism (a general distrust of the traditional, historic teachings of the Christian Church). The blog has gained significant traction among charismatic Millennials, especially those who feel disillusioned with Christianity and the Church. It has also been officially endorsed by my denomination, Vineyard Canada.
